The Labor Council for Latin American Advancement, LCLAA, is the home of the Latino Labor Movement. LCLAA is a national Latino organization representing the interest of over 1.7 million Latino trade unionists throughout the country and the Common Wealth of Puerto Rico.

LCLAA was founded in 1973 and is American's premier national organization for Latino workers and their families. LCLAA advocates for the rights of all workers seeking justice in the workplace and their communities. LCLAA is a constituency group representing Latino workers from the AFL-CIO and Change to Win Federation.

LCLAA members are committed to improving the quality of life for Latino working families. LCLAA believes that in order to achieve social justice and improve the lives of workers, every Latino must commit to the join in the effort for economic change that begins with your commitment to the movement.

We can help advance our communities and effect change.
